International Excellence in Endocrinology Award

Presented to an endocrinologist who resides outside the United States, who has made exceptional contributions to endocrinology in their own country and/or internationally. The meritorious activities of the awardee may include non-traditional endeavors with substantial local impact not always considered as criteria for other Endocrine Society awards. The contributions may encompass one or more areas of endocrine education, clinical practice, administration, and research.

Sponsored by The Endocrine Society.

NOMINEE CRITERIA
- Nominee resides outside the United States
- Contributions to the field of endocrinology are to his/her own country and/or internationally
- Member or nonmember (of The Endocrine Society)

HONORARIA
$3,000 plus travel expenses to attend the Society’s annual meeting to receive the award.

INFORMATION FOR NOMINATORS:
Nominator must be a voting member (active, emeritus, or trainee with a doctoral degree) of The Endocrine Society.

The following documents are required:
- Nomination Letter
- Letter(s) of support (minimum of one)
- Nominee’s curriculum vitae (may not be substituted with biosketch)
- List of 10 most prominent publications

Link to online nomination form and additional information:
http://www.endo-society.org/awards/LaureateAwards/Call-for-Nominations.cfm