Virtual access to the ENDO 2017 Congress

Novartis is committed to providing medical education and the latest scientific information to Health Care Professionals (HCPs). As part of this commitment, Novartis is partnering with the Endocrine Society, to allow HCPs to virtually attend ENDO 2017, taking place in Orlando FL, April 1 through 4.

Novartis will provide virtual access to ENDO 2017 via VivindaTV, a Novartis educational website.

This virtual access will include online, on-demand viewing of scientific sessions presented during the ENDO 2017 congress.

Register on www.endo.vivindaTV.com

Registration for participating European countries closes on 4 of April 2017.

VivindaTV is brought to you by Novartis and it is intended exclusively for healthcare professionals outside of Canada, Denmark, France, Norway, Sweden and United States.

The ENDO logo, the ENDO2017 logo and branding are owned by the Endocrine Society and are used here by permission.
